Prime 4 Kids & Family focuses on the development of feature film projects for cinema and TV movies (no documentaries) as well as live-action drama, animated TV series and projects for interactive media that are intended for children and family audiences. (For more information please see www.primehouse.eu.)

Participants should be professional writers or teams of writers with producers/developers and they must be citizens of a member state of the European Community or of a country which has an agreement with the European Community concerning the MEDIA Program.

Selection will be made on the basis of the creative quality, the production and market potential as well as of the cross border appeal of the submitted project. The final selection is led by Primehouse in cooperation with the partners and mentors of the workshop. All candidates will be informed about the final selection at least four weeks prior to the workshop.

Application fee is € 100,00 for each project.

Participation fee is € 1.500,00 per project/writer and € 600,00 per second/third person involved in the project. The Fee includes accommodation for the two labs and all materials, online support from mentors during the re-writing period. Travel costs are paid by the participant. Payment of the full fee is due upon confirmation of selection.

Scholarships covering the participation fee will be offered for at least two selected applicants.

Dates and Locations: first workshop 7 days in the end of September, second workshop 4 days in early December.
